

Sandie Bond

Early and Intermediate Stages of Retriever Field Training

May 18-19, 2019

9:00 am to 4:00 pm

TNT Training Centre
27624 Watson Road, Abbotsford, BC

Sandie Bond has been a successful professional Retriever trainer for over 15 years. Throughout her career, Sandie has trained, handled, and judged Retrievers in Working Certificate, Hunt Tests, and Field Trials. Sandie shares her training methods and tips to help you produce a fabulous retriever, whether you are interested in a hunting dog or a dog for Working Certificate and Hunt Test competitions. While owners of dogs at all levels will benefit from this seminar, specific focus is on retrievers in the Basics and Transition to Advanced stages of their careers. To illustrate specific concepts and drills, Sandie will work throughout the course of the seminar with various dog/handler teams. The number of dog/handler teams is limited; however, auditors are welcome to attend.

DOGS MUST BE AT LEAST 6 MONTHS OF AGE

Topics to be covered include:

- Basic obedience
- Teaching the "Fetch" command (aka force fetching)
- Collar conditioning
- Fundamentals on blinds, casting, pile work, single T, pattern blinds, lining and casting drills, cheating marks, diversions around pattern blinds
- Next steps up from foundation work

Bring chair and rain gear if needed.

Cost: Includes lunch and refreshments

- Handler & Dog (2 days) $125 limit of 15 handlers, priority for handlers attending 2 days
- Handler & Dog (1 day) $80 (if spots available, as above)
- Auditor Spots: $80 for 2 days
- Auditor Spot: $50 for 1 day

TNT Kennels is donating the land for this event. Sandie and the GRCBC will be donating net proceeds from the seminar to the treatment and research of canine cancer through the Smiling Blue Skies® Cancer Fund, part of the University of Guelph's Veterinary College and Teaching Hospital Pet Trust.
